

Dr. Teresa M. Goggins

Dr. Goggins is known by many names: intercessor, spiritual mother, mentor, coach, and international preacher. With over 20 years of ministry training and preaching experience, she's earned the known title of "General in the Faith".

She's the founder and visionary of Lady T.Goggins Ministries, two mentoring programs; Face 2 Face and Open Door Mentoring, where she instructs women at all stages of life on how to become their best selves while executing their God-given purpose in the earth, the annual Trained to Conquer Spiritual Warfare conference and serves as a spiritual covering for a number of other ministries and organizations.

She's the author of the internationally known book series, Trained to Conquer: A Strategic Manual to Intercession and its follow up, Conquering Faith.

In addition to her preaching and teaching exploits, she serves alongside her husband, Pastor Thomas Goggins, as co-pastor for Thy Kingdom Has Come International Ministries, in Mableton, Georgia.

Dr. Goggins earned a degree in Adolescent & Christian Family Counseling in 2000, from Antioch Bible College and Seminary of Atlanta, Georgia. She's a licensed evangelist through the Church of God in Christ School of Ministry and her international accomplishments include Bermuda and South Africa. In 2017, she received doctorate honors from St. Thomas Christian University in Jacksonville, Florida.

She's been in holy matrimony with her husband for over 30 years and has three daughters; Chassidy, Keirra and Savoi. Her greatest desire is to be totally and completely used by God. She wants to relinquish every dream, idea, and mantle so that she can leave this Earth empty. To God be the Glory.
