PAKISTAN

Christian families are in hiding while waiting for asylum.

LEBANON

When Zaina shared her faith in Christ, her family in Yemen threatened to kill her, and she had to flee. She is being hosted in a safe house in Yemen.

EGYPT

When the Egyptian police discovered that Amon was sharing the Gospel with Muslims, they put him in prison...for three years. Now that he is released, he is being forced into home arrest.

ALGERIA

When Farid's neighbor found out that his son was a Christian, he beat him and tortured him. Now they are being forced to leave town.

When Hakim and his wife shared his faith with his children, their oldest son left their home. They don't know where he is.

SYRIA

Salim boldly shared the Gospel in his neighborhood, and now he is facing threats of violence and persecution. His neighbors are forcing him to leave. On top of everything, he is dangerously ill and needs medical attention.

IRAN

The Iranian intelligence service raided the homes of several Christians and arrested them. Unfortunately, there is no news of their whereabouts. In addition, a Christian woman was arrested while she was evangelizing in a park. Hassan serves in a home church in Iran. Many believers have been arrested, and security forces inside Iran have pressured many home churches to disperse.

MOROCCO

Amina is a new believer who wishes to join a local church. However, her husband is making it difficult for her, pressuring her to revert to Islam and threatening her because of her faith.
